

How to Actually Remember Everything You Learn on YouTube

Lesson Supplement

- 1. Choose a chord progression you're already familiar with.
- 2. Figure out every possible position the lick will fit over each chord.
- 3. Play through the chords whilst playing the lick over every chord.
Using a metronome or backing track
- 4. Repeat step 3, but experiment with the lick. Come up with variations and try playing it with different rhythms.

For chords...

- 5. Follow the above process, but instead, figure out all the possible places the chord will fit.
Play through the progression taking every opportunity to use the new chord.
